Dear colleague,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee it is a great pleasure to invite you to participate in The XV All-Russian Meeting with international participation and VIII School for young scientists on evolutionary physiology, dedicated to the memory of Academician Leon Orbeli and the 60th anniversary of the IEPhB RAS.

The Meeting and the School will be held in October 2016 and will be carried out in succession: the first 3 days (17-19 October 2016) – The Meeting at Sechenov Institute of Evolutionary Physiology and Biochemistry of the Russian Academy of Sciences (IEPhB RAS), St. Petersburg and the next 3 days (20-22 October 2016) – The School in the village of Komarovo, Saint Petersburg.

The main areas of the Meeting and the School scientific program:

Development and evolution of functions of the human and animal organisms, influence of the environment on the developmental mechanisms of physiological functions, physiological mechanisms of adaptation, physiology of extreme conditions, development of mechanisms of regulation of homeostasis and behavior. Results of theoretical and experimental studies using morphological, physiological, biochemical, molecular biological, clinical, and phylogenetic and ontogenetic approaches are accepted.

Scientific presentations may be submitted as: lectures and oral communications; poster sessions; workshops ("round tables").

Sessions and round tables:

1. Structural and functional organization and the evolution of the nervous system.
2. Evolution of physiological homeostasis and adaptation mechanisms.
3. Molecular basis of evolution of functions.
4. Study of pathological and extreme conditions.

As part of the School will be given lectures by leading experts and the presented experimental work of young scientists (under 35 years) participating in the School in a poster presentation format; round table discussions are planned.

Illustrative materials of lectures and oral communications should be submitted in the form of computer presentations (PowerPoint).

Language of conference: Russian and English.
